JULY 2007

MEN OF THE CHURCH BREAKFAST

Thursday, July 12, 2007 @ 7:45 AM
Lowcountry Presbyterian Church
Highway 278, Bluffton

For the past 15 years, Dr. David Tribble has served as the Executive Director of the Bethesda Home for Boys in Savannah. David will be this month's MOC breakfast speaker, as we meet at Lowcountry Presbyterian Church.

David was born in Greenville, South Carolina. He married his high school sweetheart, Lynn, in 1974. Lynn and David are proud parents of two adult children: Rebekah, a pediatric trauma nurse, at Virginia Commonwealth University Hospital in Richmond, Virginia; and, Todd, assistant field superintendent, at Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

David received a BA from Furman University in Greenville, SC; an MDiv from Southern Baptist Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky; and a Doctor of Ministry in Marriage and Family Studies, also from Southern Baptist Seminary.

Prior to his tenure at Bethesda Home for Boys, David served as Executive Director of Spartanburg Girls' Home, in Spartanburg, SC, from 1985-1991. Before that, 1980-1985, he was Associate Pastor at Taylor's First Baptist Church in Greenville.

Please join us to hear David's inspiring message as Lowcountry Presbyterian hosts this month's MOC breakfast. We will take a break for the month of August, resuming for our Fall schedule in September. Have a great and safe summer.
