MEN OF THE CHURCH BREAKFAST
Thursday, January 10, 2008
@7:45 AM
Providence Presbyterian Church
Hilton Head Island

We have an exciting breakfast meeting scheduled for January. It will be held at Providence Presbyterian Church on Cordillo Parkway at the south end of Hilton Head Island. Our speaker will be Providence's new senior pastor, Dr. Martin Lifer.

Martin and his wife, Nancy, and two daughters came to Providence at the end of November 2007 from Parkway Presbyterian Church in Cumming, Georgia, north of Atlanta where he was the founding and organizing pastor ten years earlier. He received his call to the ministry later in his life. A Vanderbilt graduate and then a University of Florida --- Holland College of Law graduate, Martin practiced law for five years. He moved to Orlando where he and Nancy were married and where his own faith deepened. He became active in their church and its lay leadership and became involved in mission and outreach in the community and beyond. By 1994 Rev. Lifer graduated from Columbia Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity degree. In addition to his decade of service at Parkway Presbyterian, Martin served as associate pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Winter Haven, Florida, from 1994-1997.

Men of the Church heartily welcome Dr. Martin Lifer to Providence and to our MOC family. The title of his talk is: "Christianity: Part-timer, Full-timer, or Lifer?"

Our devotional, entitled "Who is Your Neighbor?" will be led by John Scott, based on scripture: Luke 10:27. Our hymn will be "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

Please join us at Providence on January 10th at 7:45 AM for this dynamic program. The hearty $8 breakfast will be served. Bring your friends and neighbors to Providence.
